1. Policy Owner Information (please print)

Case Name (Each case must have a separate LPOA): _____

Printed Name of Policy Owner (Company/Trust Name): _____

Policy Owner appoints _____ as its Limited Attorney in Fact (herein referred to as Holder) for the limited purposes of allocating future contributions and exchanging among liquid investment options within the above-referenced case.

The power created by this document is effective when it is received and recorded by Nationwide Life Insurance Company (the "Company"). It is revoked when written notice is received and recorded by the Company and is automatically terminated when the Holder ceases to be a currently licensed and appointed representative of the Company or the agent of record for the case.

The power is personal to the Holder and may only be delegated strictly for purposes of administrative processing by representatives authorized by the Attorney-in-Fact. The power is not available for use by any person or organization providing market-timing advice.

Policy Owner and the Holder agree to hold the Company harmless for any representation or any action taken by the Holder, its employees, its agents, or its appointees, when the Holder is acting on behalf of the Policy Owner under this Limited Power of Attorney. Policy Owner and Holder jointly and severally agree to indemnify the Company for and against any claim, liability or expense arising out of any action by the Company in reliance on such instructions.
