

Nationwide, in partnership with your local farm organization, is excited to bring you a series of educational webinars designed to help you better plan for and live in retirement. Join us for a live event to interact with our specialists or view our on-demand version anytime.

Health care in retirement: Will Medicare cover that?

Health care is likely to be one of your biggest retirement expenses. Join us as Nationwide shares useful information about the impact of health care costs in retirement, your planning options, and how you can get a personalized estimate of these potential costs.

Live event: Coming next in 2021

On Demand Watch our pre-recorded version on your schedule

Protecting your farm and family with life insurance

Today's life insurance provides coverage for families, for farm or ranch agribusiness owners and it can provide unique protection to help finance your long-term care expenses as you age. Whether you're a young family with high levels of farm debt or you're older and planning to transition your family agribusiness to the next generation, learn what you need from Nationwide.

Live event: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 5 – 6 pm EST/2-3 pm PST REGISTER HERE

On Demand Watch our pre-recorded version on your schedule

What farmers need to know about Social Security retirement benefits

Your retirement readiness depends on many choices over your working years. Perhaps no choice is more significant than how and when to begin taking Social Security. Your choice on when to file for Social Security could affect your annual benefit by as much as 76%.¹ Learn the basics of Social Security and useful information to help you make the right decision based on your circumstances.

Live event: Tuesday, September 15, 2020 5 – 6 pm EST/2 – 3 pm PST REGISTER HERE

Tuesday, November 17, 2020 1 – 2 pm EST/10 – 11 am PST REGISTER HERE

On Demand Watch our pre-recorded version on your schedule

¹ Based on an individual with full retirement age of 66, comparing early filing at age 62 and receiving reduced benefits of 75% of primary insurance amount versus delayed filing at age 70 and receiving credits to increase benefits by 32% of primary insurance amount.

Understanding long-term care solutions: Helping farmers plan for the care they deserve

Did you know that 7 in 10 Americans age 65 or older will need some form of long-term care (LTC) services during their remaining years²? What can you expect and how will you pay for it? Learn more from Nationwide about how, as a farmer or rancher, you can better estimate your potential LTC expenses in your community and begin building a plan to fund it.

Live event: Tuesday, October 20, 2020 9 – 10 am EST/6 – 7 am PST REGISTER HERE

On Demand Watch our pre-recorded version on your schedule

² <https://longtermcare.acl.gov/the-basics/how-much-care-will-you-need.html>

• Not a deposit • Not FDIC or NCUSIF insured • Not guaranteed by the institution • Not insured by any federal government agency • May lose value

When choosing a product, make sure that life insurance and long-term care insurance needs are met. Because personal situations may change (i.e., marriage, birth of a child or job promotion), so can life insurance and long-term care insurance needs. Life insurance, and long-term care coverage linked to life insurance, has fees and charges associated with it. Clients should consult with their financial professional for more information on costs and coverage.

Products are issued by Nationwide Life Insurance Company or Nationwide Life and Annuity Insurance Company, Columbus, Ohio. Nationwide Investment Services Corporation (NISC), member FINRA, Columbus, OH. Nationwide Retirement Institute is a division of NISC.

Nationwide, the Nationwide N and Eagle, Nationwide is on your side, and Nationwide Retirement Institute are service marks of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company © Nationwide 2020
NFM-18535AO.4 (03/20)