Certification:

I elect not to receive paper statements. I agree to carefully review my quarterly account statements online. I understand that I will receive an electronic notification that my statement, Quarterly Newsletter, and Individual Investment Performance have been posted to the web site and that I must provide an accurate email address.

I agree to notify the Plan of any changes to my email address. I also understand I may elect to receive paper statements in the future by notifying the Administrative Service Agency in writing. If I do, paper statements will resume as soon as administratively possible and at no additional charge. I recognize that the New York State Deferred Compensation Plan has the authority to change my request and resume sending paper statements to my address of record.
