Plan Highlights

Kentucky Deferred Comp

was created solely for employees of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and local governments, public school systems and public universities, as well as other political subdivisions.

What is Kentucky Deferred Comp?

- A statutory retirement benefit created for Kentucky public employees and administered by Kentucky State Government
- A voluntary program Kentucky public employees can use to supplement their pension with income generated through long-term savings
- Two defined contribution plans, offering five tax-advantaged savings options
 - 457(b) Plan, pretax contributions
 - 401(k) Plan, pretax contribution, including after-tax Roth 401(k), Deemed Traditional IRA and Deemed Roth IRA options

Why do you need KDC?

Today's public sector pension plans are not designed to replace 100% of working career income. In fact, most Kentucky public employees relying solely on a pension when they retire will experience a 40 to 50% reduction in income. The Kentucky General Assembly created KDC specifically to help Kentucky public employees bridge this income gap.

Why start now?

The sooner you begin investing through KDC, the longer your account has to grow, which could lead to a higher account balance at retirement. Investing as little as $15 per semimonthly paycheck could mean a retirement account value close to $30,000 or more.

These figures assume contributions of $15 per semimonthly pay period and a 6% annual return. This example is for illustrative purposes only. Your account value may be higher or lower depending on actual returns. Taxes may be due upon withdrawal. You may want to meet with your personal advisor(s) for specific legal or tax advice.

Remember: The more you contribute each payday, the more likely you are to grow your KDC account into an important resource for additional income in retirement.
