Federal income tax withholding:

Withholding election for direct payments and systematic payments lasting less than 10 years:

There is a mandatory 20% withholding for federal income taxes. You may elect to withhold an additional percentage. If you wish to do so, please indicate this below.

- I wish to have an additional percentage of Federal Income Tax withheld. At the time of submission, a Form W-4R Federal Tax Withholding Form is required. The current Form W-4R form can be found on the IRS website at www.irs.gov/forms-pubs-search

NOTE: If we don't receive the Form W-4R, Nationwide will default to withholding taxes based on the current Internal Revenue Code (IRC) withholding rules.

Withholding election for RMD payments:

Federal income taxes are withheld at the current default rate of 10% unless you elect otherwise. If you wish a different withholding percentage, please select one of the options listed below.

- I elect to opt-out of federal income tax withholding; 0% withholding
- I wish to have a different percentage of Federal Income Tax withheld. At the time of submission, a Form W-4R Federal Tax Withholding Form is required at time of submission. The current Form W-4R can be found on the IRS website at www.irs.gov/forms-pubs-search

NOTE: If we don't receive the Form W-4R, Nationwide will default to withholding taxes based on the current IRC withholding rules.

State income tax withholding: Taxes will be automatically withheld if you are a resident in a state that mandates state income tax withholding. If you would like to adjust your state taxes, please complete and attach a state tax withholding form. These forms can be obtained from the State website; Nationwide does not supply these forms.

Self-Directed Brokerage Account

If you have money in the Self-Directed Brokerage account and the requested amount exceeds your core account balance, you will need to transfer funds back to the core account before your request can be processed. If you select a systematic payment, you will need to maintain a sufficient balance in your core account to cover your elected amount.
