

NVIT Columbia Overseas Value Fund — Class X

Investment Strategy from investment's prospectus

The investment seeks to maximize total return consisting of capital appreciation and/or current income. Under normal conditions, the fund invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities issued by companies that are located in, or that der

Category Description: Foreign Large Value

Foreign large-value funds invest mainly in big international stocks that are less expensive than the market as a whole. Most of these funds divide their assets among a dozen or more developed markets, including Japan, Britain, France, and Germany. They tent to invest the rest in emerging markets such as Hong Kong, Brazil, Mexico and Thailand. These funds typically will have less than 20% of assets invested in U.S. Stocks.
